

November's IALAC theme is.....

Respect

You are respectful if:

You treat others the way you want to be treated.

You are considerate of other people.

You are polite towards others and say yes, please, thank you, and you're welcome.

You accept personal differences.

You work to solve problems without violence.

You never intentionally hurt or embarrass others.